

Key appointment to Sales Team

The organic growth of the company has seen the recruitment of many new key members of staff. The most recent being the addition of Daniel Stockley to the sales team.

Dan will assume the role of Business Development Executive and further strengthens the team.

He joins us from Jardine Lloyd Thompson where he was employed as a Development Executive and has a strong background in the industry.

On his appointment Dan commented 'I am delighted to have joined the team here at Bridge and look forward to contributing to the company's continued growth. Along with the experienced team of professionals and resources available, I am excited about my future at Bridge'.
